Celina, TX Hosts 9th Annual Cajun Fest

The City of Celina hosts its 9th annual Cajun Fest, sponsored by Rollertown Beerworks, on Saturday, May 8, 2021, from 12:00 - 9:00 pm. Cajun Fest is a spicy event that celebrates all things Louisiana: Mudbugs, Zydeco music, shopping, and cold drinks to wash it all down. This free-to-attend street festival in historic Downtown Celina is family-friendly and has something for everyone. Laissez bon temps rouler!

Cajun Crawfish Company brings the taste of Louisiana to Celina. The crawfish plates, sponsored by Lamar Bank, are currently available for sale online. Get 3lbs. of delicious crawfish complete with corn and potatoes for $20 during our online presale, or purchase at the event for $25. Purchase your advanced sale tickets online at lifeincelina.tx.com/Cajun-fest.

The entertainment lineup, sponsored by Centurion American, features country music legend Tracy Byrd. Sign-up now for the VIP experience to see Tracy Byrd up close and personal. The VIP package ($150) gets you a meet-and-greet with Tracy, stage pit passes, 3lbs. of crawfish, and a craft beer from Rollertown. Availability is limited to 50 people, so purchase your tickets soon at lifeincelina.tx.com/Cajun-fest.

In addition to Tracy Byrd, back by popular demand is Grammy Award Winner Wayne Toups. He is one of the most commercially successful American Cajun singers. Country music sensation Coffey Anderson, Mr. Red, White, and Blue, and Southern Brave, straight from the heart of North Texas, complete this year's musical lineup.

Gator Country, sponsored by Servpro, is back again this year with their reptiles and gator show! Kids are also sure to have a blast in our Kids Zone, Sponsored by Andy's Sprinkler, Drainage, and Lighting. There is entertainment for all ages, including bounce houses, a Pirate Ship, and other mechanical rides.

Not a fan of mudbugs? We have many additional food vendors to choose from. For the shopping enthusiast, we have a wide range of different vendors offering everything from books to palm readers and even ax throwing! Don't miss this exciting event.
